This image shows a handwritten musical score for three voices: Soprano (S), Alto (A), and Bass (B). The music is written in common time (indicated by 'C') and consists of three staves. The Soprano staff is at the top, the Alto staff in the middle, and the Bass staff at the bottom. The score includes lyrics in German, which are written above the notes and follow a specific rhythmic pattern. The lyrics describe scenes of nature, such as birds singing ('Vogel singen') and flowers ('Blumen'), and mention the 'Sturm' (storm). The handwriting is in black ink on aged paper. The score is numbered '2' in the top right corner.

Handwritten musical score for two voices and piano, page 63. The score consists of six systems of music, each with two staves. The top staff of each system is for the soprano voice, the bottom staff for the alto voice, and the rightmost part is for the piano. The music is written in common time with various key signatures. The vocal parts use a system of dots and dashes to represent pitch and rhythm. The piano part includes dynamic markings like 'mf' (mezzo-forte) and 'p' (pianissimo). The lyrics are written in German and are partially obscured by the musical notation. The score is numbered '63.' at the top right.

This image shows a single page from a handwritten musical manuscript. The page contains five staves of music, each with a different key signature and time signature. The notation is a traditional system with vertical stems and dots for pitch, and horizontal strokes through stems for specific note heads. The manuscript is written in black ink on yellowed, slightly aged paper.

Handwritten musical score for three voices (SATB) and piano. The score is divided into four systems by vertical bar lines. The top system begins with a vocal entry in German, followed by a piano part. The lyrics continue in both German and Latin. The second system begins with a vocal entry labeled "Gesang". The third system begins with a vocal entry labeled "Gesang". The fourth system begins with a vocal entry labeled "Gesang". Dynamics such as p, pp, f, and ff are indicated throughout the score. The manuscript is written in black ink on aged paper.

The manuscript consists of four staves of music, each with a different key signature and time signature. The notation is highly stylized, using a mix of standard musical symbols like quarter notes and eighth notes, along with unique characters and markings. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of A major (no sharps or flats). The second staff begins with a bass clef and a key signature of E major (one sharp). The third staff begins with a bass clef and a key signature of C major (no sharps or flats). The fourth staff begins with a bass clef and a key signature of G major (one sharp). The music is divided into measures by vertical bar lines, and the tempo is indicated by a 'P' (piano) at the end of the first staff.

Continuation of the handwritten musical score, showing the second system. The vocal parts continue in black ink, and the piano part in brown ink. The lyrics "Du bist der Herr" are written above the piano staff.

Continuation of the handwritten musical score, showing the third system. The vocal parts continue in black ink, and the piano part in brown ink. The lyrics "Auf ja" are written above the piano staff.

Continuation of the handwritten musical score, showing the fourth system. The vocal parts continue in black ink, and the piano part in brown ink. The lyrics "Alle" are written above the piano staff.

Violino. I.

The musical score consists of 15 measures of handwritten notation on five-line staves. Measure 1 starts with a forte dynamic and includes a fermata over the first two notes. Measures 2-3 show a transition with eighth-note patterns. Measures 4-5 continue with sixteenth-note figures. Measures 6-7 feature eighth-note chords. Measures 8-9 show eighth-note patterns with grace notes. Measures 10-11 continue with sixteenth-note figures. Measures 12-13 feature eighth-note chords. Measures 14-15 show eighth-note patterns with grace notes. The score is written in common time, with various dynamics like forte, piano, and sforzando. Measure 15 ends with a repeat sign and the instruction "Capo C pp." The score is labeled "Violino. I." at the top right, with a page number "15" at the top right corner.

A handwritten musical score for three voices. The top two voices are in soprano range, indicated by a soprano C-clef, and the bottom voice is in bass range, indicated by a bass F-clef. The score consists of ten staves of music. The first six staves are for soprano voices, and the last four are for a basso continuo part. The music is written in common time, with various dynamics like forte (f), piano (p), and sforzando (sf). The notation includes note heads with vertical stems and horizontal dashes, and some notes have small numbers or letters (e.g., 3, 2, 1, 1, 2, 3) written through them. The basso continuo part features a bass staff with a single line of rhythmic patterns and a separate continuo staff with vertical strokes. The score is written on aged, yellowed paper.

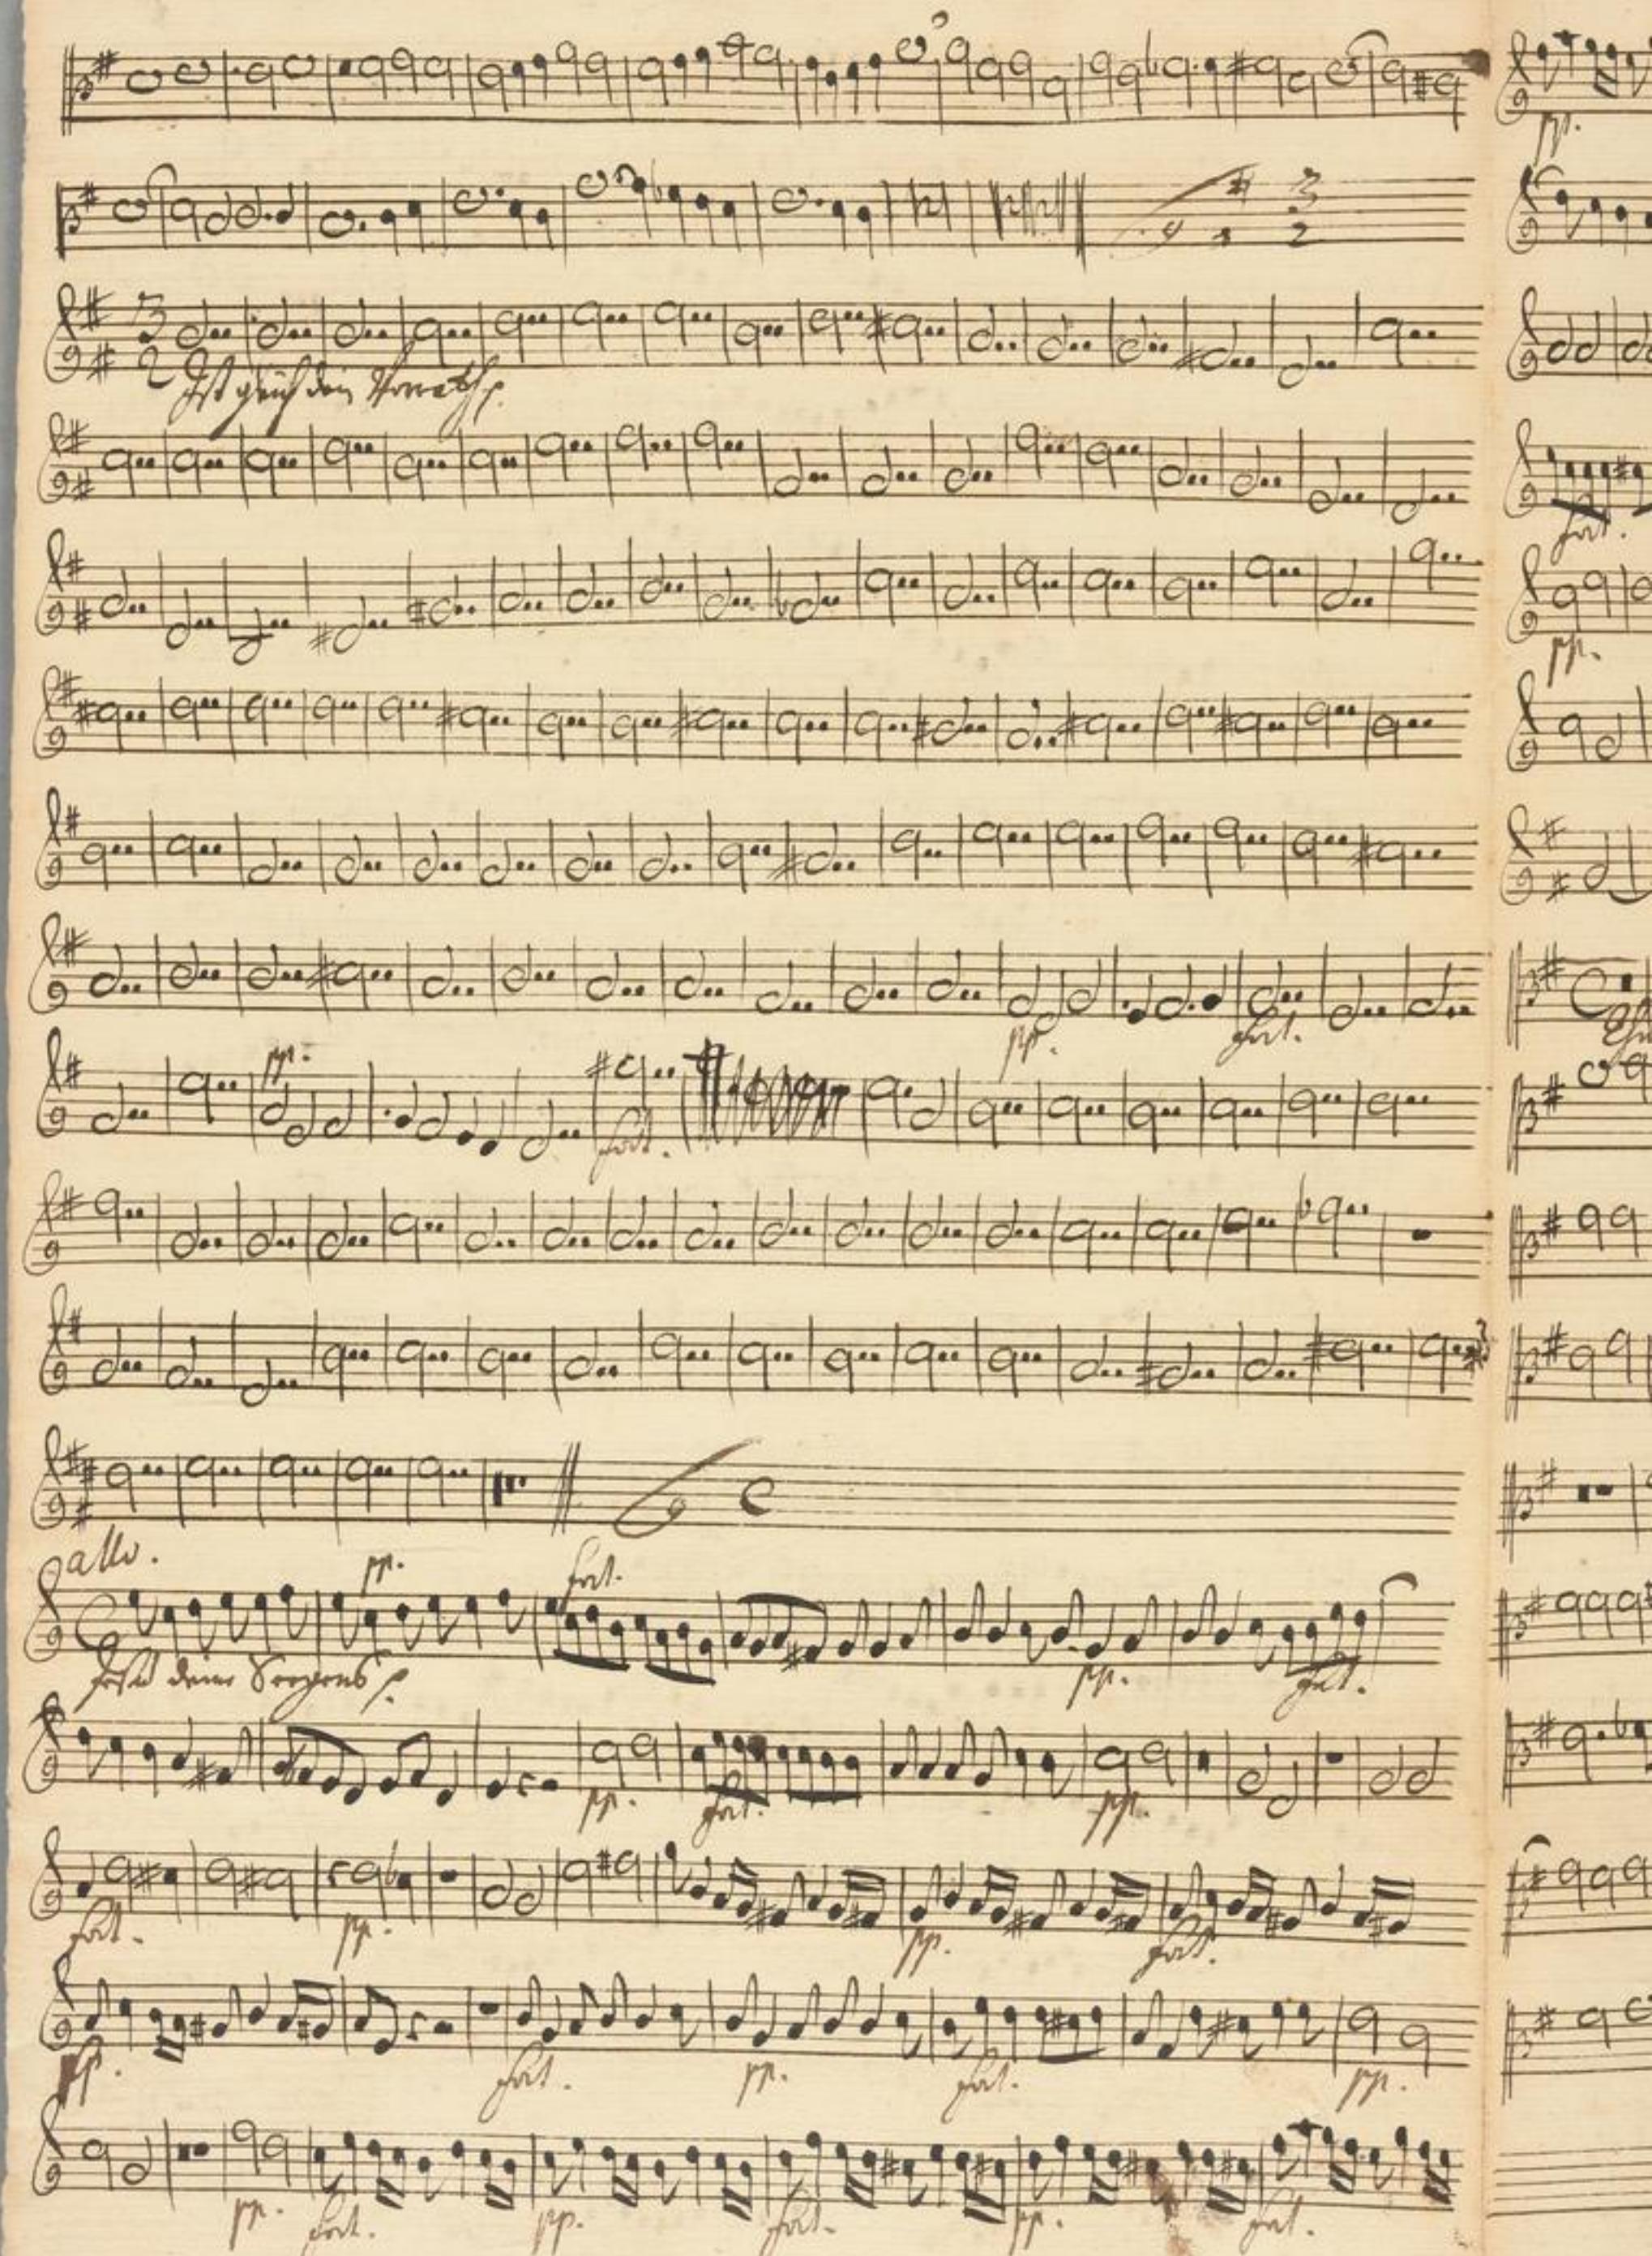

Violino. 2.

The musical score consists of 12 staves of handwritten notation for violin. The notation uses vertical stems and horizontal dashes to represent pitch and rhythm. The first staff includes a tempo marking "Gut langsam". The score concludes with a repeat sign and the instruction "volti".

This is a handwritten musical score for a string quartet, consisting of four parts: Violin 1, Violin 2, Viola, and Cello. The score is written on ten staves, each with a different key signature and time signature. The notation is highly detailed, featuring various note heads, stems, and beams. Articulation marks like accents and slurs are present, along with dynamic markings such as fortissimo (f), pianissimo (pp), and mezzo-forte (mf). Performance instructions include 'C' for common time and 'C' with a '2' for two measures. The manuscript is dated '19.11.1988' at the bottom right.
