

Psalm 50 (Hob. XXII-4)

James Merrick (1720–1769)

Franz-Joseph Haydn (1732-1809)

Soprano

Alto

Men

The Lord, th'al - might - y Mon - arch, spake, and Re - veal'd from Si - on's sac - red bound, the Heav'n from a - bove shall hear his call, and Th'app - laud - ing heav'ns the change - less doom, while bade the earth the sum - mons take, and bade the seaut with match - less beau - ty crown'd, the seaut with thou, the vast terres - tri - al ball, and the thou, the God the bal - ance shall ass - ume, while God the earth the sum - mons take, far as his eyes the match - less beau - ty crown'd, our God his cours shall vast terres - tri - al ball! While in man's whole race their bal - ance shall ass - ume, in full me - mor - ial realms sur - vey, of ris - ing and de-down - ward bend, nor sil - ent to his Judge shall meet, in and count - less throngs be-shall re - cord, and own the just - ice

- clin - ing day, of ris - ing and de - clin - ing day.
 work des - cend, nor sil - ent to his work des - cend.
 fore his seat, in count - less throngs be - fore his seat.
 of their Lord, and own the just - ice of their Lord.